The Piqua Area Chamber of Commerce Presents The Piqua Historical Marker

Piqua is a community rich in its architectural heritage, a historical marker program has been organized by the Piqua Area Chamber of Commerce.

The Piqua Historical Marker is a handsome cast aluminum plaque that commemorates when a house or building was constructed.

The Plaque is traditionally placed next to the front door, to the right or left side. The plaque is approximately four inches by eight inches in size and is black with gray trim. This would compliment any color or façade, giving it a historical and prestigious appearance.

The Historical Marker could be considered for businesses that are housed in historical buildings. It would be an eye catching addition to the front entrance.

Houses and businesses need to be old for owners to purchase a Marker. The desire to display the date is all that is necessary.

The Piqua Historical Marker could be a unique gift for any occasion, but be sure to order ahead of time since DELIVERY DATES CANNOT BE GUARANTEED.

- Consider a Historical Marker for your business. If you own a business located in a historical building, this attractive marker would make a great addition to your front entrance.
- The cost of the Historical Marker is $100.00, payable in advance. Interested persons should stop at the Piqua Area Chamber of Commerce or call 773-2765 to order.
- Persons ordering a Historical Marker will be notified when it arrives and will need to pick it up at the Piqua Area Chamber of Commerce.
- Remember, delivery dates cannot be guaranteed.
